

will Interest You.

SALE.

AND CHILDREN'S

OVERCOATS!

BROS.

s and Tailors,

WHITEHALL STREET.

MILL SUPPLIES, ETC.

N & KING,

URERS AND DEALERS

AND GENERAL MILL SUPPLIES.

BROADST.

CEMENT AND COAL.

LE SONS

Stove Flue, absolutely

terra Cotta Chimney

Stove Thimbles.

MENTS,

RAIN PIPE,

WER PIPE,

RE BRICK,

FIRE CLAY,

MASTERS HAIR,

SHOE COAL,

ATLANTA, GA.

INVESTMENT COMPANY.

Security Investment Company

ATLANTA, GA.

DIRECTORS.

JOHN KELLY,

L. J. HILL,

W. R. HAMMOND.

FIVE YEARS from date, with interest at 7 PER CENT, payable

IMPROVED REAL ESTATE worth at least two and one-half

PAYMENT BY THIS COMPANY, with interest at 7 PER CENT, payable

by addressing L. J. HILL, President, Atlanta, Ga.

FURNISHING GOODS.

We are now closing out our stock

HARD AND SOFT COAL

Heating Stoves.

MANTELS,

Plain and Ornamented Grates, The

GAS FIXTURES

AND

GLOBES

of latest designs always in stock.

COOKING STOVES

AND

WROUGHT IRON RANGES,

TIN WATER SETS,

GRANITE IRONWARE,

Infant, all kinds of Housefurnishing

Goods, Stoves and Gas Fixtures,

Pumps, Bins, etc.,

Agents for the Southern States,

Atlanta, Ga.,

and all other parts of the South.

WAGON COMPANY,

ATLANTA, GA.

Carriages, Spring and

s in the South.

WAGON COMPANY,

ATLANTA, GA.

Water Manager,

Three Street,

Prices.

AND SEE US

al Agents for

KENDALL,

s, Victoria,

s, Y. C. C. C.

ON CO.

If you want the best goods at lowest possible prices

be sure and call on us.

H. L. ATWATER, Manager.

VOL. XIX.

CARLISLE CAN'T COME

Such is the Answer Which He Gives Senator Colquitt.

BUT HE MAY COME AT A LATER DATE

Senator Kenna to Reply to Senator Sherman. The New Postmaster General

Terminates Out the Kenna.

WASHINGTON, February 1.—[Special.]—Mr.

Carlisle will not visit Georgia. While he has been so much since his first attack, he made it public only this afternoon. Senator Colquitt had Mr. Blount called upon him this evening in reference to his Georgia visit, and urged upon him to go. He replied that, while he desired to make the trip, he thought it his duty under his physician's advice, not to attempt it.

He returned from Fort Monroe this morning feeling more improved in health, but still quite weak. He promised, however, to again confer with his physician in reference to the trip.

Messrs. Colquitt and Blount, and, in fact, most of the delegation, are very much disappointed at this decision.

THE KENNA TRIP.

A delegation consisting of the senators and representatives from Florida, with a committee of his citizens, called on the president this morning, and invited him to visit their state on the 22nd, to attend the Sub-tropical exposition at Jacksonville. The president promised to go if his public duties would permit.

Senator O. S. Gifford, of Dakota, was heard before the house committee on territories this morning, in favor of the bill to admit north and south Dakota as separate states. The committee will report this bill to the house.

They have the committee on education, the committee on the presidential election. A committee from the last convention of the American association of educators of the blind, comprising Superintendent Williams, of the Georgia institution, and six others, were leading the house committee on education this morning, favoring a bill introduced by Colonel

Caudier, by request, that the United States should set aside a sum to be invested, which will produce a fund of $50,000 to be distributed among the various institutions, in order that they might be able to secure the best of the higher branches at present. The discussion was informal, and the matter went over until the bill shall have been received.

THE NEW YORK POSTOFFICE.

A delegation from the New York postoffice is here today, for the purpose of appointing and classifying their work better in order to make it a permanent part of the postoffice service.

They maintain that, with a greater number of inspectors, postmasters will be more careful with their accounts, and the entire system will work to better advantage.

While Mr. Richardson was discussing his bill today, to give thirty days' leave of absence to each employee of the printing office, a republican jumped to his feet and asked excitedly

if the Democrats were going to turn out every Republican employe of all the departments.

Mr. Richardson put a question to him by replying: "Don't you think the vote of 1881, by which all Republicans were turned out, should be enforced?"

THE DIRECT TAX BILL.

It will again be taken up by the judiciary committee tomorrow, and they will probably determine to report it favorably.

The internal revenue bill of Messrs. Stewart and Houston, which has been given in full in this correspondence, will be reported to the house tomorrow.

San Francisco has representatives here today soliciting members to hold the national democratic convention in that city. They have interfered many democrats, and the majority have expressed themselves in favor of New York. However, many say it cannot be held at that place, they will be satisfied with San Francisco.

Senator Kenna, of West Virginia, has announced that he would tomorrow reply to Senator Sherman's speech opposing the president's message. Mr. Kenna is a full-fledged tariff reformer.

Don Dickinson, the new postmaster-general, showing his democracy in a substantial way

by declaring his intention to give no preference to any party in the selection of postmasters. Mr. Dickinson is a full-fledged tariff

reformer.

Mr. W. E. Haygood, of Georgia, is at the Metropolitan.

SMUGGLERS ON THE BORDER.

Memorial to Congress by Merchants of Texas—Senate Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, February 1.—In the senate

Mr. Coke presented a memorial from the cattle men of El Paso, Texas, representing the extensive amount of smuggling done between the border towns of Mexico and the United States, under the Mexican free zone law, and asking that a reciprocity treaty be entered into with Mexico in order to prevent such smuggling.

Mr. Morgan remarked that if congress would pass a law to carry into effect the provisions of the treaty with Mexico, which was ratified

two or three years ago, the purpose of the memorial would be substantially accomplished.

Mr. Coke concurred in the opinion of Mr. Morgan and added that nothing could help the commerce of this country with Mexico more than the execution and enforcement of that treaty.

The memorial was referred to the committee on foreign relations.

Mr. Frye, from the committee on foreign relations, reported a bill to facilitate the settlement and develop the resources of Alaska, and to open an overland route between the United States, Asia, Russia, and Japan. The bill provides for the construction of a railway from the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and for the operation of the same. The bill also provides for the construction of a railway from the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and for the operation of the same. The bill also provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

provides for the construction of a railway from

the coast of Alaska to the coast of Asia, and

for the operation of the same. The bill also

HER NECK SAVED.

Eliza Randall Will Not Be Hanged Today.

THE STORY OF HER SHOCKING CRIME.

How She Received the News of Her Husband's Hanging of Moore Today—Other Crimes and Casualties.

GEORGETOWN, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—This county was created in 1850, and since that time the records of the court were not blotched with the heinous crime of murder, but the long record was broken in 1887.

In September last, Lewis Moore, colored, slew his friend and companion, Isaac Wright, and following the crime in the way of this, Eliza Randall, an eighteen year old negro girl, brained her father, Joe Randall, using a common club for the purpose, from the effects of which he died two days following.

The circumstances connected with the Randall tragedy may be briefly summed up as follows:

Eliza seemed to have been a headstrong girl, and resisted the authority of her father. On one occasion he forbade her spending the night away from home. She disregarded his command, and when she returned he threatened to punish her severely. This incensed her, and that night, while Joe was sitting on the piazza, talking with his brother about building a milldam, and while closely absorbed in the subject, Eliza slipped up stealthily, rear and dealt him a death blow on the head, with the above stated results. She at once fled to an adjoining county, but after a few days regained courage and returned to her home on the plantation. Word was communicated to Sheriff Harrell, who lost no time in securing the prisoner and lodging her in jail. She was tried before Judge J. M. Clark, at an adjourned term of court last December, found guilty of murder, and sentenced to be hung on Thursday, February 24, 1888.

The prisoner was taken by the Solicitor William Harrison, who lost no time in securing James Henry appearing for the state. The defendant sought to show mitigating circumstances, showing that the father tried to establish improper relations with his daughter, but could not get a testimony before the jury, as the grandjurors, by whom they claimed to be able to establish the attempted liaison, was sick and could not appear at the trial.

Upon this ground Colonel Harrison went before the governor this morning, and after a hard fight succeeded in obtaining a respite, which he says means a commutation to life imprisonment. A CONSTITUTION representative, accompanied by the sheriff, was in the prison at the time the message was delivered, which bore the signature of the secretary of state. At first it seemed not to be understood by the condemned, then slowly turning to the sheriff she said:

"I ain't free yet, am I?"

"No, Eliza, you can't hope for that," said the kind hearted sheriff, "but your life will be saved."

After a moment of thought the veil seemed to be lifted, and in an ecstasy of delight she exclaimed:

"I'm going to be a good girl, I am, the balance of my life."

In the midst of the many protestations of thanks to Colonel Harrison for his magnanimous work, she was left to her joy.

Colonel Harrison, who was interviewed by your correspondent immediately on his return, was elated over the success of the trip. He said:

"I don't want my county to hang a woman. It can do better business than that."

Lewis Moore will be hanged tomorrow.

HUNTER WAS HELD.

And the Lady in the Case Was Not Permitted to Escape.

SUMMERVILLE, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—The Hunter-Manning mania before Judge Bellah, in the court room, was by no means void of interest. Hunter was lodged in jail five days previous charged with battery, and in the meantime Miss Manning, the unfortunate lady, was being spirited away by the wide awake brother of Hunter, but the ever vigilant officials of Dix Town valley were not to be left, and they succeeded in capturing them before they reached the Alabama line, and the lady's testimony proved very damaging to the wily Hunter, who was convicted and sentenced to five months in the chain gang, and the payment of $75 fine and costs, which amount was paid today and he released.

THE PRISONERS GET AWAY.

DOUGLASSVILLE, February 1.—[Special.]—Jim Whitlatch, a negro, was taken Monday night in the lower part of the county, charged with stealing a horse and wagon. He was placed in the custody of Mr. John Long, and that night managed to shoot Mr. Long twice and escape. Both wounds are flesh wounds in the right arm, and are not serious.

THE AUGUSTA GAZETTE DEAD.

The Unprofitable Business of Running a Daily Sheet.

AUGUSTA, February 1.—[Special.]—The Augusta Daily Gazette will not come out to-morrow. When the printers came to work to-day, they found the doors closed and were told that the paper was not to be printed any longer. The first issue of the Gazette came out June 19th last, and it has lost money from the first. With a circulation of only about six thousand dollars in the enterprise. Mr. Miller said to-day, when questioned, that he had examined the books and found the paper was losing $10,000 a week, and so ordered to close up business. He says it does not owe a dollar, has net all its obligations and owns its plant, but that its expenses were steadily exceeding its receipts, and they decided to lose money no longer. He says the paper paid expenses in December, which was only one month it did since it was started. It is rumored that Mr. John M. Welgite, lately of the Evening News, will purchase the outfit, and run a weekly paper.

TIMBER LANDS GOING CHEAP.

The Wonderful Fertility of the Pine Stretches Described.

ALBANY, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—Just think of it: the heavily timbered lands of this section are being offered at from fifty cents to one dollar per acre. This is the money value placed upon them in this market, and at which prices sales are being constantly effected. These are the lands timbered with the famous Georgia pine, which from a carpet of native grass and vegetation, upon which flocks can feed throughout the year, spring the brown-coated monarchs of the forest, where, from their slender needles of living green, they constantly murmur with balsamic breath, to inhale the odor of which means health and strength to the weak and consumptive. It is incredible that these lands should be offered for such a song, especially so when we consider the fact that the pine is constantly growing into favor not only for the common uses to which it is put, but for its beautiful grain and lovely color, which becomes richer year by year, and which can be converted into beautiful decorative articles for interior ornamentation. These undulating lands,

THE DAY IN MACON.

The Covington and Macon Paying Up Bills.

TWO STORES DESTROYED BY FIRE.

A New Firm in Business—A Delightful Evening—The Public Library—Personal Notes—Other News From Macon.

MACON, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—Everybody that goes into the office of the Covington and Macon railroad comes out with a happy smile on their faces. It is pleasing to anyone to know that the Covington and Macon are paying all bills as they are presented. The railroad is justly proud of its record, and almost every one that is connected with the road in its late trouble was in the office today, watching the good work go on. Nearly all of the creditors that had anything against the road were promptly paid. The total amount of bills paid today was $17,000.

WELL LAID ON.

A Prisoner Held on the Ground While Others Suffered Brutal Punishment.

SAVANNAH, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—The county commissioners to-day considered their investigation of the management of the chain gang. James Collins, one of the convicts who were whipped, was examined this morning. He was suffering with a bad cold, and could hardly speak above a whisper. He said: "On January 1st, I was sick and I could not work. I was trying to get off, and Brady wouldn't let me. We could not get water for washing or for drinking in our quarters. I complained to Dr. Chisholm. He spoke to Brady about it, and it made the chief mad. That night I was taken down, and Brady said he was going to whip me. He made the prisoners hold me down. One sat on my head. Brady stripped me and whipped me cruelly. When he got through he went out, but came back a few minutes later, and beat me with a stick, and then he took me to the jail. I was driven out to work, and was put in a cell with a convict sentenced for vagrancy. I told a similar story. His statement and Collins' were corroborated by the guards. Brady will be indicted for assault with intent to murder. The county commissioners have been asked to offer a reward for Brady's capture."

THE CATTLE ON THE STREETS.

The Citizens of Albany Debating a Mixed Question.

ALBANY, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—The considerable interest manifested by the citizens of Albany in the contemplated ordinance to be passed by the board of aldermen prohibiting the running at large of cattle upon the streets of the city, was evidenced by the fact that a large number of citizens gathered at the city hall to-day to discuss the matter. The ordinance, which has been introduced, is as follows: "That no person shall allow any cow, bull, or other animal to run at large in the city of Albany, and that any person who shall violate this ordinance shall be fined not more than $50, or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both, at the discretion of the court."

RECORDED IN COURT.

The following cases were heard before Judge Paxton this morning:

J. P. Johnson, white, drunk; fined $7.50 or ten days.

J. M. Bridges, white, drunk; fined $7.50 or ten days.

Richard Wilson, same charge; discharged.

Michael Rusein, colored, drunk; fined $10 or ten days in city prison.

Sophia Glover, colored, drunk; fined $2.50 or three days in prison.

J. P. Glover, white, drunk; fined $5, or five days in city prison.

John Weeks, white, drunk; dismissed.

Randolph Thwait, colored, shooting sling; fined $5 or five days in city prison.

Lula White, colored, vagrancy; fined $15 or thirty days in prison.

Alfred Davis, colored, vagrancy.

Thomas Lane, colored, vagrancy.

Tony Williams, thieving truck.

A Delightful Evening.

MACON, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—A most delightful evening was given last evening by Major J. T. Hanson, at his handsome residence on Georgia avenue, complimentary to Messrs. Alexander Brown, of Baltimore; Colonel H. C. Macdonald, and Judge H. M. Herndon, of New York. The invited guests were Messrs. W. H. Ross, J. M. Johnston, J. S. Baxter and N. E. Smith, of the city of Macon, and a large number of other guests.

TWO STORES DESTROYED BY FIRE.

MACON, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—At half-past four o'clock this morning a fire alarm was sounded from box 102. The fire department promptly responded, and discovered that two stores, occupied by Mr. John Thorne and Tom Thorne, had been destroyed. The stores were entirely consumed by flames. The fire was caused by a gas stove in the Thorne store, and it was utterly impossible to quench them, so the different streams of water were turned upon the adjacent buildings. The entire stock of Mr. Thorne was destroyed; its value was $2,000, insured for $17,500. The loss of the Thorne store was $2,000, insured for $17,500. The buildings were owned by Mr. Hudgin, of Atlanta.

MADE AN ASSIGNMENT.

MACON, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—The late John Thorne, having been declared bankrupt, made an assignment. It is said to have been caused by lack of trade and collections for the last several months. The assets of the firm, amounting to about $10,000, with assets that will run up to $40,000. The firm does a large business in this city, and has many friends who sincerely hope to see them on their feet soon again.

CRANES EATING CARP.

MACON, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—Dr. R. Thompson, who owns a beautiful carp pond near Cedarburg, has for some time been finding dead fish of all sizes, of this species, floating in the pond. He has been investigating the cause, he discovered that cranes of a grey variety were paying nightly visits to the pond and doing this deadly work. With a shot he killed one of the cranes, and the dead body of one of the pestiferous cranes, and has sent notice on the other to expect a similar fate.

NEW POLICEMEN IN COLUMBUS.

COLUMBUS, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—The city council, at its meeting to-day, added four new members to the police force, and to afford the district recently annexed police protection. The office of city inspector was created, the salary being fixed at $40 per month. Mr. C. N. McCann was appointed inspector. The old police force remains without change. The four new policemen are Messrs. Hugh O'Flynn, E. Skinner, W. D. Simpson and R. J. Anglin.

CRASHING HIS SKULL.

QUITTMAN, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—Frank Finch, a bright, promising young man, a graduate of the University of Georgia, was killed late this afternoon. He, with two companions, was horse-back riding, and decided upon a race on the road between the residence of Hon. F. T. Turner and F. J. Spain. The saddle turning caused Finch's horse to dart through the woods, and dashed him against a tree, crushing his skull.

AS COURT STENOGRAPHER.

ATHENS, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—Rufus Christy, of Athens, was appointed by Judge Lumpkin, of the superior court, stenographer of the northern circuit, and will remain in Athens an experienced shorthand writer, having been employed for many years at the residence of Hon. F. T. Turner and F. J. Spain. He is a well known and popular man, and is well known to the friends of the cause of the oppressed.

ROME'S THREE CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATES.

ROME, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—It is reliably stated that Floyd county will have three congressional aspirants. The names are Hon. Joel Brannan and Hon. John Reece. Friends of all these gentlemen are already at their elbow.

HER FIRST TRIP.

AUGUSTA, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—Fred Ward gave Daason and Perkins to a good audience in Market hall to-day. The progress, the second of Augusta's new steamers, leaves for Savannah tomorrow morning on its first trip.

THE DAY IN MACON.

The Covington and Macon Paying Up Bills.

TWO STORES DESTROYED BY FIRE.

A New Firm in Business—A Delightful Evening—The Public Library—Personal Notes—Other News From Macon.

MACON, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—Everybody that goes into the office of the Covington and Macon railroad comes out with a happy smile on their faces. It is pleasing to anyone to know that the Covington and Macon are paying all bills as they are presented. The railroad is justly proud of its record, and almost every one that is connected with the road in its late trouble was in the office today, watching the good work go on. Nearly all of the creditors that had anything against the road were promptly paid. The total amount of bills paid today was $17,000.

WELL LAID ON.

A Prisoner Held on the Ground While Others Suffered Brutal Punishment.

SAVANNAH, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—The county commissioners to-day considered their investigation of the management of the chain gang. James Collins, one of the convicts who were whipped, was examined this morning. He was suffering with a bad cold, and could hardly speak above a whisper. He said: "On January 1st, I was sick and I could not work. I was trying to get off, and Brady wouldn't let me. We could not get water for washing or for drinking in our quarters. I complained to Dr. Chisholm. He spoke to Brady about it, and it made the chief mad. That night I was taken down, and Brady said he was going to whip me. He made the prisoners hold me down. One sat on my head. Brady stripped me and whipped me cruelly. When he got through he went out, but came back a few minutes later, and beat me with a stick, and then he took me to the jail. I was driven out to work, and was put in a cell with a convict sentenced for vagrancy. I told a similar story. His statement and Collins' were corroborated by the guards. Brady will be indicted for assault with intent to murder. The county commissioners have been asked to offer a reward for Brady's capture."

THE CATTLE ON THE STREETS.

The Citizens of Albany Debating a Mixed Question.

ALBANY, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—The considerable interest manifested by the citizens of Albany in the contemplated ordinance to be passed by the board of aldermen prohibiting the running at large of cattle upon the streets of the city, was evidenced by the fact that a large number of citizens gathered at the city hall to-day to discuss the matter. The ordinance, which has been introduced, is as follows: "That no person shall allow any cow, bull, or other animal to run at large in the city of Albany, and that any person who shall violate this ordinance shall be fined not more than $50, or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both, at the discretion of the court."

RECORDED IN COURT.

The following cases were heard before Judge Paxton this morning:

J. P. Johnson, white, drunk; fined $7.50 or ten days.

J. M. Bridges, white, drunk; fined $7.50 or ten days.

Richard Wilson, same charge; discharged.

Michael Rusein, colored, drunk; fined $10 or ten days in city prison.

Sophia Glover, colored, drunk; fined $2.50 or three days in prison.

J. P. Glover, white, drunk; fined $5, or five days in city prison.

John Weeks, white, drunk; dismissed.

Randolph Thwait, colored, shooting sling; fined $5 or five days in city prison.

Lula White, colored, vagrancy; fined $15 or thirty days in prison.

Alfred Davis, colored, vagrancy.

Thomas Lane, colored, vagrancy.

Tony Williams, thieving truck.

A Delightful Evening.

MACON, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—A most delightful evening was given last evening by Major J. T. Hanson, at his handsome residence on Georgia avenue, complimentary to Messrs. Alexander Brown, of Baltimore; Colonel H. C. Macdonald, and Judge H. M. Herndon, of New York. The invited guests were Messrs. W. H. Ross, J. M. Johnston, J. S. Baxter and N. E. Smith, of the city of Macon, and a large number of other guests.

TWO STORES DESTROYED BY FIRE.

MACON, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—At half-past four o'clock this morning a fire alarm was sounded from box 102. The fire department promptly responded, and discovered that two stores, occupied by Mr. John Thorne and Tom Thorne, had been destroyed. The stores were entirely consumed by flames. The fire was caused by a gas stove in the Thorne store, and it was utterly impossible to quench them, so the different streams of water were turned upon the adjacent buildings. The entire stock of Mr. Thorne was destroyed; its value was $2,000, insured for $17,500. The loss of the Thorne store was $2,000, insured for $17,500. The buildings were owned by Mr. Hudgin, of Atlanta.

MADE AN ASSIGNMENT.

MACON, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—The late John Thorne, having been declared bankrupt, made an assignment. It is said to have been caused by lack of trade and collections for the last several months. The assets of the firm, amounting to about $10,000, with assets that will run up to $40,000. The firm does a large business in this city, and has many friends who sincerely hope to see them on their feet soon again.

CRANES EATING CARP.

MACON, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—Dr. R. Thompson, who owns a beautiful carp pond near Cedarburg, has for some time been finding dead fish of all sizes, of this species, floating in the pond. He has been investigating the cause, he discovered that cranes of a grey variety were paying nightly visits to the pond and doing this deadly work. With a shot he killed one of the cranes, and the dead body of one of the pestiferous cranes, and has sent notice on the other to expect a similar fate.

NEW POLICEMEN IN COLUMBUS.

COLUMBUS, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—The city council, at its meeting to-day, added four new members to the police force, and to afford the district recently annexed police protection. The office of city inspector was created, the salary being fixed at $40 per month. Mr. C. N. McCann was appointed inspector. The old police force remains without change. The four new policemen are Messrs. Hugh O'Flynn, E. Skinner, W. D. Simpson and R. J. Anglin.

CRASHING HIS SKULL.

QUITTMAN, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—Frank Finch, a bright, promising young man, a graduate of the University of Georgia, was killed late this afternoon. He, with two companions, was horse-back riding, and decided upon a race on the road between the residence of Hon. F. T. Turner and F. J. Spain. The saddle turning caused Finch's horse to dart through the woods, and dashed him against a tree, crushing his skull.

AS COURT STENOGRAPHER.

ATHENS, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—Rufus Christy, of Athens, was appointed by Judge Lumpkin, of the superior court, stenographer of the northern circuit, and will remain in Athens an experienced shorthand writer, having been employed for many years at the residence of Hon. F. T. Turner and F. J. Spain. He is a well known and popular man, and is well known to the friends of the cause of the oppressed.

ROME'S THREE CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATES.

ROME, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—It is reliably stated that Floyd county will have three congressional aspirants. The names are Hon. Joel Brannan and Hon. John Reece. Friends of all these gentlemen are already at their elbow.

HER FIRST TRIP.

AUGUSTA, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—Fred Ward gave Daason and Perkins to a good audience in Market hall to-day. The progress, the second of Augusta's new steamers, leaves for Savannah tomorrow morning on its first trip.

section of the state and includes many of the best and most extensive plantations in the country. It is claimed that by their association they are enabled to get better figures and terms on all fertilizers, supplies and agricultural implements than they could before organizing the alliance, which will be a great saving to that class whose burdens are already too heavy.

Every correspondent learned this morning that the negroes of the state are preparing to organize an alliance also, for the purpose of establishing high wages for farm labor, and making ten hours a day's work. They claim that they are forced to organize in order to keep their wages up to living rates.

THEY MET BY CHANCE.

And Then They Married Without Asking Parental Consent.

CAVE SPRING, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—Sunday night Miss Mabelle Clark and Mr. Charlie Sims were joined in holy wedlock by Squire W. M. Burns at the home of the squire. The affair was a complete surprise to both families and every one else. Mr. Charlie Sims is a son of the late merchant W. B. Sims, and has been working in Ansonia since he left school about a year and a half ago.

On Sunday morning, accompanied by Mr. Edwin Ford, another Cave Spring young man, now of Ansonia, Mr. Sims, bound for the train at Ansonia for Cave Spring. He got off at Prior's Station and his friend came on to Cave Spring to arrange for the marriage. Mr. Ford saw the squire and the young lady and made an engagement to take her to church that night.

Miss Mabelle Clark is a daughter of Mr. Ford and his wife. She is a very pretty girl, and is well educated. Mr. Sims is a very handsome young man, and is well educated. They were both born in Cave Spring, and have been working in Ansonia since they left school about a year and a half ago.

The squire tied them hand and fast, and then they drove to the home of Mr. Sims, where the bride's father and mother were waiting. The bride's father and mother were informed, and at 9 o'clock the bride and groom, accompanied by Mr. Ford, boarded the train for Ansonia.

There was no objection to the match, except the parents of the bride thought her too young to marry, being only eighteen.

Miss Mabelle Clark is a daughter of Mr. Ford and his wife. She is a very pretty girl, and is well educated. Mr. Sims is a very handsome young man, and is well educated. They were both born in Cave Spring, and have been working in Ansonia since they left school about a year and a half ago.

THE MERCHANTS ARE MAD.

But the City Council Seems to Have Several Heads of Its Own.

ATLANTA, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—The squabble between the city council and the merchants of Atlanta is growing more and more heated. The city council has passed an ordinance which requires the merchants to pay five dollars additional license fee for each additional twenty thousand dollars of business. The merchants feel that this is an unreasonable demand, and they are preparing to resist the ordinance.

The city council has passed an ordinance which requires the merchants to pay five dollars additional license fee for each additional twenty thousand dollars of business. The merchants feel that this is an unreasonable demand, and they are preparing to resist the ordinance.

THE EAGLE AND THE PHOENIX.

The Annual Meeting of the Stockholders Yesterday.

COLUMBUS, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Eagle and Phoenix Manufacturing Company was held yesterday afternoon at the city hall. The president presented his annual report, which shows the company to be in an excellent financial condition. The report was received with much satisfaction by the stockholders.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Eagle and Phoenix Manufacturing Company was held yesterday afternoon at the city hall. The president presented his annual report, which shows the company to be in an excellent financial condition. The report was received with much satisfaction by the stockholders.

BUSINESS ENTERPRISES IN ATHENS.

ATHENS, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—Mrs. Myers, an excellent bird-keeping keeper in our city, will very soon open the Athens Bird and Fish Store, of this place. Mrs. Myers is an experienced bird keeper, and her house will be filled with the best of the birds.

FORTUNES IN NAVAL STREETS.

ATLANTA, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—Several fortunes were made in the city of Atlanta by the late war. The late war was a great success for the city, and many fortunes were made by the late war.

ENLARGING THE CANNING FACTORY.

ATLANTA, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—The Canning Factory, of this city, is enlarging its factory. The factory is a very large one, and it is being enlarged to accommodate the increasing business of the city.

BRINGING IN HIS COTTON.

ALBANY, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—Twenty-four large bales of cotton, upon three great wagons, were driven into the city of Albany, driving slowly up Broad street bound for one of the cotton warehouses, was one of the prosperous looking city sights. The cotton was from the plantations of Mr. J. F. Crossland, in east Dougherty county, one of our many successful planters.

FORTUNES IN NAVAL STREETS.

ATLANTA, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—Several fortunes were made in the city of Atlanta by the late war. The late war was a great success for the city, and many fortunes were made by the late war.

ENLARGING THE CANNING FACTORY.

ATLANTA, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—The Canning Factory, of this city, is enlarging its factory. The factory is a very large one, and it is being enlarged to accommodate the increasing business of the city.

BRINGING IN HIS COTTON.

ALBANY, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—Twenty-four large bales of cotton, upon three great wagons, were driven into the city of Albany, driving slowly up Broad street bound for one of the cotton warehouses, was one of the prosperous looking city sights. The cotton was from the plantations of Mr. J. F. Crossland, in east Dougherty county, one of our many successful planters.

FORTUNES IN NAVAL STREETS.

ATLANTA, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—Several fortunes were made in the city of Atlanta by the late war. The late war was a great success for the city, and many fortunes were made by the late war.

ENLARGING THE CANNING FACTORY.

ATLANTA, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—The Canning Factory, of this city, is enlarging its factory. The factory is a very large one, and it is being enlarged to accommodate the increasing business of the city.

BRINGING IN HIS COTTON.

ALBANY, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—Twenty-four large bales of cotton, upon three great wagons, were driven into the city of Albany, driving slowly up Broad street bound for one of the cotton warehouses, was one of the prosperous looking city sights. The cotton was from the plantations of Mr. J. F. Crossland, in east Dougherty county, one of our many successful planters.

FORTUNES IN NAVAL STREETS.

ATLANTA, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—Several fortunes were made in the city of Atlanta by the late war. The late war was a great success for the city, and many fortunes were made by the late war.

ENLARGING THE CANNING FACTORY.

ATLANTA, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—The Canning Factory, of this city, is enlarging its factory. The factory is a very large one, and it is being enlarged to accommodate the increasing business of the city.

BRINGING IN HIS COTTON.

ALBANY, Ga., February 1.—[Special.]—Twenty-four large bales of cotton, upon three great wagons, were driven into the city of Albany, driving slowly up Broad street bound for one of the cotton warehouses, was one of the

MISCELLANEOUS.

WATCH REPAIRING.
BY SKILLED WORKMEN, A SPECIALTY.

FREEMAN & CRANKSHAW,
JEWELERS.

OPIMUM.
The Weather Report.

THE WEATHER REPORT.

Indications for Georgia: Fair weather; warmer in eastern portion; stationary temperature in western; light to rain, generally southerly.

Daily Weather Bulletin.
OBSERVED: OFFICE, 8:30 A. M. (U. S. A.)
OBSERVED: OFFICE, 8:30 A. M. (U. S. A.)
OBSERVED: OFFICE, 8:30 A. M. (U. S. A.)

STATIONS.	Barometer.	Thermometer.	Wind.	Weather.
Mobile.	30.14	62	Light	Clear.
Montgomery.	30.16	62	Light	Clear.
New Orleans.	30.16	62	Light	Clear.
Palm Beach.	30.16	62	Light	Clear.
Pensacola.	30.16	62	Light	Clear.
Port of Spain.	30.16	62	Light	Clear.
St. Louis.	30.16	62	Light	Clear.
St. Paul.	30.16	62	Light	Clear.
St. Petersburg.	30.16	62	Light	Clear.
St. Thomas.	30.16	62	Light	Clear.
St. Vincent.	30.16	62	Light	Clear.
St. John.	30.16	62	Light	Clear.
St. Kitts.	30.16	62	Light	Clear.
St. Lucia.	30.16	62	Light	Clear.
St. Martin.	30.16	62	Light	Clear.
St. Pierre.	30.16	62	Light	Clear.
St. Vincent.	30.16	62	Light	Clear.
St. John.	30.16	62	Light	Clear.
St. Kitts.	30.16	62	Light	Clear.
St. Lucia.	30.16	62	Light	Clear.
St. Martin.	30.16	62	Light	Clear.
St. Pierre.	30.16	62	Light	Clear.

METEOROLOGICAL SUMMARY.

Month of January, 1888. Station, Atlanta.

DATE.	Barometer.	Thermometer.	Wind.	Weather.
1.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
2.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
3.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
4.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
5.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
6.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
7.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
8.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
9.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
10.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
11.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
12.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
13.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
14.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
15.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
16.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
17.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
18.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
19.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
20.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
21.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
22.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
23.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
24.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
25.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
26.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
27.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
28.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
29.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
30.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.
31.	30.17	62	Light	Clear.

UNDER TAKER.

No. 62 South Pryor street. On call day or night.

FRANK N. BILLEY.

MEETINGS.

There will be a meeting of the above named company held at their room, February 3, 1888, from 7 till 9 p. m. Members are requested to attend.

A. L. DEAN, Secy. G. F. POTTS, Pres.

Masonic Notice.

A regular communication of Fulton Lodge No. 28, F. and M. will be held on Thursday, Feb. 2, 1888, at 7 o'clock. The M. M. degree will be conferred. All brethren in good standing are cordially invited.

OTTO SPAIN, Secy. TULLIO COLVILLE, W. M.

Bible Reading of Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

The "old original" W. C. T. U. will meet today (Thursday) at 3 p. m. at the pastor's study at the First Baptist church. Important business, followed by a Bible reading by Mrs. Chase. All our members and all friends and strangers in the city, cordially invited.

Mrs. WYTER, Secy.

OBITUARY.

DEPARTED—Died, on Tuesday, January 31st, at 1:30 p. m., at the residence of Mr. John Carey, 288 Boulevard, Atlanta, Miss Penelope T. Helbert, aged 18 years, daughter of the late ex-Governor Helbert, of Louisiana.

EXIT.

Paper Cigarettes.

'Social Whiff'

Cigarros.

Absolutely pure, hand-made and all tobacco of choicest quality.

For sale everywhere. Five in a package for 5 cents. Try them.

J. STEINHEIMER & CO.,

Wholesale Agents, Atlanta, Ga.

Just a line of goods.

LADIES.

Do Your Own Dyeing at Home With

PEERLESS DYES!

They will dye everything. They are easy to use. They are of the best quality.

They are of the best quality. They are easy to use. They are of the best quality.

They are of the best quality. They are easy to use. They are of the best quality.

They are of the best quality. They are easy to use. They are of the best quality.

They are of the best quality. They are easy to use. They are of the best quality.

They are of the best quality. They are easy to use. They are of the best quality.

They are of the best quality. They are easy to use. They are of the best quality.

They are of the best quality. They are easy to use. They are of the best quality.

They are of the best quality. They are easy to use. They are of the best quality.

They are of the best quality. They are easy to use. They are of the best quality.

They are of the best quality. They are easy to use. They are of the best quality.

MAKING A DIRECTORY.

The Details of the Work Described Interestingly.

TRIBULATIONS OF THE CANVASSERS.

The Difficulties Which Beset Them at Every Step—Going From House to House—The Great Care Required.

The canvass for and compilation of a city directory, similar to the one now passing through the press of The Constitution Job Office, is something with which very few of those whose names appear upon its pages are familiar.

Little thought is ever given the work by the many thousands who annually refer to it, further than to take it for granted that it is correct in all details, and some occasionally, perhaps, to grumble at being troubled once a year for a matter of a few minutes to give the canvasser the necessary information regarding names, etc., never once taking into consideration the vast amount of labor required to issue the book with that degree of accuracy which is indispensable.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

Very few of those to whom the work is an absolute necessity seem aware of the fact that in gathering the information the canvasser depends upon them solely for the correctness, and that in taking the little time asked by him to give the information asked, he is actually doing a great deal of good.

They are not only greatly assisting him, but are also benefiting themselves.

A. T. STEWART'S STOLEN BODY.

Interesting Revelations—The Real Thieves and the Money They Got.

The publication of the New York ex-Superintendent of Police Walling's book has resulted at last in revealing the true facts in the robbery of Millionaire Stewart's body. As will be remembered, it was stolen from the vault in the old church yard at Stuyvesant Place and Second Avenue, one dark night soon after its burial, and despite large rewards and the employment of the best detectives, no clue to its whereabouts could be found. It now seems that the body lies in a secret vault in the Garden City Cathedral, and that it was finally secured one dark night by a young relative of Mrs. Stewart, who met the robbers alone and unprotected and exchanged $20,000 in bills for the body. It is a large sum to pay for a corpse.

These facts serve as a very plain text that should lead any thinking man to preach himself a sermon full of good sense. There are thousands of men in business, law, medicine, politics, and the like, who value their lives highly and yet who have harassed themselves with over-work, care, and anxiety, and who, like A. T. Stewart did, are driving themselves under the sharp lash of ambition, at break-neck speed, to the grave or insane asylum. They will not pause now and spend one dollar for a bottle of Scotch Oats Essence to rest, calm and strengthen their brain and nerves and avert the terrible disaster that threatens them. A body may be kept alive for $1 where it takes $20,000 to recover a corpse.

Unquestionably Stewart worked himself to death, but he was not from early morning till late at night, and in spite of his immense wealth, knew scarcely an hour's pleasure. Over-work and over-strain produce disease of heart, liver and kidneys, as well as brain and nerve troubles, and he who is wise will not let the chance to save his life with Scotch Oats Essence pass him by.

It is a large sum to pay for a corpse.

These facts serve as a very plain text that should lead any thinking man to preach himself a sermon full of good sense. There are thousands of men in business, law, medicine, politics, and the like, who value their lives highly and yet who have harassed themselves with over-work, care, and anxiety, and who, like A. T. Stewart did, are driving themselves under the sharp lash of ambition, at break-neck speed, to the grave or insane asylum. They will not pause now and spend one dollar for a bottle of Scotch Oats Essence to rest, calm and strengthen their brain and nerves and avert the terrible disaster that threatens them. A body may be kept alive for $1 where it takes $20,000 to recover a corpse.